

Bharathi Women Development Centre

Community development projects for sanitation and financial inclusion

Bharathi Women Development Centre (Bharathi) is a community-based development agency providing microfinance services. Bharathi works in three districts in south India. Bharathi is engaged in various development activities. It carries out irrigation and land development, and is involved in water management and sanitation projects. In addition, it sets up women's self-help groups, and provides education in financial literacy, health and nutrition.
